

William Crawford to George Washington, February 7, 1775, Letters to Washington and Accompanying Papers. Published by the Society of the Colonial Dames of America. Edited by Stanislaus Murray Hamilton.

FROM MAJOR WILLIAM CRAWFORD.

W: CRAWFORD Feby. ye. 7th 1775

SIR/

Your Letter by Mr Cleveland was Safe Delivered to me but I did not get the Letter you mentiond by Mr Willis till yesterday

I was out Surveying when Mr Cleveland cam over the mountain and he set of hom as soon as I cam hom and Matters was Settled I have got a memorandom of what is Wanting for your People Down the river and I shall have it ready against the time the com over the Mountain I would have Sent Down your plats by Mr Cleveland but he cold not wait till the cold be done but Val Crawford is coming to Williamsburgh and then you shall have the plats sent by him to you, he will be Down in a few days which will I hop sute you as well as he is coming and will call at Mount Vernon on his way down Sir I am at a Loss ho to return you thanks for your Generious Presant all that I can do any tim shall allways be don, if I can go Down the river when you com I will and if you will Let me know what you may want got ready it shall be don I have a neet Connoe that will Sute to run Down with or you may go by Land as there is a road Cut to Hock-hocking

I Shall write you more fully by Val Crawford as Mr. Cleveland is in great hast to go to you as he want to be up again as soon as posable I wis you all Happyness and I am your most

Library of Congress

Hume Sarvant W: CRAWFORD